PROGRAMME NOTES

Monsieur Jourdain is a wealthy tradesman who wants to be accepted into the aristocracy. He thinks that if he learns to behave like a gentleman then people will believe he is one. So he hires teachers, lends money to a Count and tries to become friendly with a Marchioness. All these people despise Jourdain as a snob, but are willing to flatter and trick him into believing he is a gentleman of rank, for the sake of his money.
